I've played all games, and completed one of them (Detective Chirpums). Here is what I think:

Test Chamber: After playing some levels, I can say this is, to me, the best game in this package. Very interesting puzzles that require seeing things from different angles, nice Fez-looking characters and clean, cool graphics.

Roguelight: Really nice rogue-like game, which has a very interesting play with light, nice gameboy-like graphics and many upgrades. I've reached level 3, and I plan to try it a bit more to see if I can finish it. You can get this game for free or pay what you want here: <http://managore.itch.io/roguelight>

Detective Chirpums: The game is mostly filled up with dialogs, with only 3 puzzles and some dialog choices that don't seem to matter much (you just get a different dialog response). It's not a great game, but it's OK.

Hets: cool graphics, randomized levels, you get upgrades when you finish a level. Not too bad, but after playing it 44 times, I got bored and decided to never play it again.

Laz Knitez: joust game with shooting mechanics and some weird power-ups. Played it for a couple of minutes (by myself) and quit. Could be nice with friends, but it is boring alone.

So, to sum it up, I think Roguelight and Test Chamber make this mixtape worth it, specially if you get it at the current discount (80%). If you read this later, make sure you wait for a discount.. Ah, a true TS Essential. Usually if a piece of DLC is less than £10, I suggest get it & this is no exception. It's great value for money and a true bargain in a Sale, but what do you get? Two liveries, countless variations of trains (2-car, 3-car, 4-car, etc.), custom destination boards and three scenarios.

However, that's not really the point. This pack is pretty much essential if you play TS, or like to create your own scenarios or download content for the Steam Workshop - many, many scenarios use these and they are just fantastic. The liveries are nicely done (especially the Blue & Grey), it comes with a ton of features and is... challenging to drive. If you're not used to gears on a loco, bear that in mind - you'll learn it eventually though and to be honest, it's more difficult for me on the Class 03 but that's another story.

My Dad says these DMU's used to be his favourite - he'd travel on them on the way home from School and would always try and bag the seat where you could see the Driver at the Controls & the line ahead. After using this pack quite a lot, it's easy to see why he liked them. And for the price, I suggest that you don't wait for the Sales to get this. Get it none-the-less - it's just fantastic!. fun casual little game, hopefully can be fleshed out over time, seems a decent bit of fun, looking forward to see where it goes... This game is great!

I enjoy building a model train set and being able to change the scale that I'm building in as well as riding and controlling the trains!. I beat the game in 64 minutes on my first run.

More:

There is no reason to ever purchase anything other than the maximum priced stock you can afford.

There is a grid placement system which leads me to think that tactical placement will be required, but I didn't find placement variations to be rewarding enough to bother with (or notice the impact of).

The new day screen interrupts gameplay and offers nothing of value to make up for this. The profit number doesn't count stock that you bought and haven't sold yet, so expect the number to be completely useless in determining how much you actually made. (Not that I'd want to stop gameplay to see daily profits anyways. This can be a number stuffed in a corner for those interested.)

I can't believe how bad the optimization for this game is. I was getting maybe 3 fps in the game and 3 minutes later had my entire computer crash! I'm definitely going to refund until this game is better optimized.. Wow, this went places both literally and figuratively. Especially the latter part. I guess I teared up a little at the end... It was well worth the read, and I'm looking forward to more, as always.

Highly recommended!. I thought the 2nd game in the series was hard. Nope, that was child's play compared to Avalon Legends 1. This time around you have goals (are they are no joke) to reach, magic cards to collect, and items to you can buy and sell. Graphics is really good and music is ok. Overall, I had a good time with this game, but still have not finished it. That last puzzle is a beast.

. Bad graphics and gameplay quit the game within 2 minutes. Underrated gem. Wasn't sure about it because of the reviews at first.

I like the old and newer X-COM, big fan of Invisible Inc. as well. This game is like a mix of that.

Once you get used to the systems in the game it's pretty addictive. There's depth, and you really have to use your brain.

Also a big fan of the combat system that doesn't rely solely on the RNG but on actual tactical skill.. This game is great. I love the stealth aspect and trying to figure out how to get through all the levels without being detected. Id really recommend this game to anyone who likes hardcore stealth.

There is a few things that I dont like. I wish there was a Save feature, even if the save feature was limited like only being able to save 3 times would be so helpful. I also wish the silenced pistol actually killed in 1 or 2 shots instead of using a whole clip on someone.

but beyond those flaws its really fun and addicting. It's easy to make fun of EPOCH for looking like a ripoff of lots of good games, or alternatively for being one because it absolutely is. But my question is why on earth would that be a bad thing? Do you not like those things?

Of course on the other hand it's made in BYOND, but if you have nostalgia for overly-ambitious shoddy early-2000s indie games you will feel right at home. This is the kind of thing my brother and I tried to make when we were in high school and it's adorable and I love it. I only played an hour of this and found 4 blue balls. It was quite boring. The noise to find the balls gave me a crashing headache! I won't even finish this as it is too tedious. 4 out of 10 for me.. Top halloween free to play pc game! I really love it! Give me all that candy pumpkinz for my party!. I was enjoying the game up until the point at which I realized that bridges are not working properly. I was able to build two bridges after about ten attempts. I needed to build a third bridge but it just wouldn't work. I gave up after about fifteen attempts. I tried various locations and as many different bridge configurations (different lengths, angles relative to shore, etc.) as I could think of, but I was not able to figure out why I succeeded in building the first two bridges but not the third. I also tried reloading the game.
